Thank you for your interest in becoming a dealer with Sleepy Poet Antique Mall.

What we do is pretty basic...

There is no long term lease. We rent space on a monthly basis and we only charge a 10% commission on all sales. We do not charge any credit card or advertising fees.

We collect and pay all sales taxes – you do not need a business license or permit to have a booth at Sleepy Poet.

Dealers are selected by management using a “juried” system. Your application must include photos of either a current space or of items you would be selling. Please submit application and photos in person or by mail - please do not email app and/or photos.

There are not a lot of restrictions on what is allowed in your booth. We look for dealers who sell antique and vintage items – but we are always looking for dealers with that unique twist! We discourage dealers from selling modern clothing & accessories, modern household goods, or items “just to clean out the house”.

Since 1998, Sleepy Poet has excelled in the Charlotte market by showcasing dealers who are driven and dedicated to this style of business and treat their booth as a full or part-time job. We have found that successful dealers “work” their booth a minimum of once a week.

We review all applications and photos thoroughly and keep them on file for 6 months.
